Eucharistic Prayer for Christmas

Presider Holy God, our Source and Ending, Alpha and Omega, we give thanks to you!
You have called all creation into being,
setting the earth on its foundations.
You have spread out the heavens like a tent, and set a boundary to the seas, you have filled the world with your creatures and called all things good.

In these latter days, God leaned toward the earth and spoke to us by a Son, Jesus the Beloved.
Born of our sister Mary and the Holy Spirit, guarded by our brother Joseph with fatherly care, Jesus came among us as a baby, humbly born, cradled beside the beasts and warmed by their breath, human as we are, in need of human love.
Yet kings bowed down before him, bringing gifts and emperors were troubled by his reign – this Child in whom all the fullness of God was pleased to dwell.

This Word of God made flesh and full of grace was sent to deliver us from our sin, from the power of evil and the fear of death.
As a servant, Jesus emptied himself of might upon the cross, and as the risen Anointed One is enthroned at God's right hand to bring mercy and justice to all the earth at the end of days.

We remember how Jesus took bread and blessed and broke it and gave it to his friends, saying, “Take, eat, This is my body, given for you.
Do this for the remembrance of me.”

And after supper, took a cup of wine and blessed and gave it to them, saying: “Drink this, all of you.
This cup is the new covenant in my blood, poured out for you and for many for the forgiveness of sin.
Do this for the remembrance of me.”

So, rejoicing in all God has done for us, we offer our thanks and praise:

People We praise you, we bless you, we give thanks to you and we pray to you Lord, our God.

Holy God, as you visited us in the birth of Jesus, visit us now by the power of your Spirit in these creatures of bread and wine, making them and us the Body and Blood of Christ, the banquet of heaven here on earth,

Blessed God, shed your grace brighter than starlight on us that we may bear your good tidings to all and renew the weary world in your name: the name of Emmanuel – God-With-Us, and as we remember and give thanks for his birth, we lift our voices with your heavenly messengers who night and day sing to you:

[Sanctus and Benedictus]
