

GREAT THANKSGIVING PRAYER OF CAIN OUR FATHER

Richard Fabian © 1980, 1995
Revised: Paul Fromberg © 2010

Presider It is truly fitting and right to praise you at all times and in all places,
O God, Savior of the world.

For you made all humankind in your own image,
to rule your creation in peace,
and commanded us to live together in love forever.

And though Cain our father rose in anger
and killed his brother, you had mercy on him.
You gave him a covenant,
and marked him with a protecting sign;
you placed the gravest sinners beyond human judgment.

With the same steadfast love
you led your people Israel out of slavery;
and when they deserted you
and worshipped false gods you did not forsake them.
You gave them your law to guide them,
and led them through the desert to a land of promise.

So in every place where we made war,
you have led us towards peace;
where we fell into sin, you forgave us;
where we wandered, you called us back with promises of love.

In the fullness of time you sent your Son,
to seek out the lost and bring them the good news
of your boundless mercy.
He did not confine himself to the righteous,
but chose sinners for his friends.
On the cross he forgave those who murdered him and with his dying breath, showed the fullness of your love.

Then you raised him from the dead,
and poured out his spirit on all people,
sharing his victory over death
with those who rejected him.
And so, we sinners give thanks for the death and risen life of your Son.

For on the night he was handed over to suffering and death,
our Lord Jesus Christ took bread;
and when he had given thanks to you,
he broke it and gave it to his disciples and said—

“Take, eat: This is my body, which is given for you.
Do this in remembrance of me.”

After supper he took the cup of wine;
and when he had given thanks,
he gave it to them and said—

“Drink of this, all of you:
This is my blood of the new covenant,
which is shed for you and for all
for the forgiveness of sins.
Whenever you drink it,
do this for the remembrance of me.”

And so Father, of all the things that are yours
we offer you these, which are yours especially.
We offer them gladly, as he told us,
giving thanks for his death and resurrection.
And seeing that the power of sin is broken,
and Christ is all in all,
we praise you and we bless you.

People

We praise you, we bless you, we give thanks to you, and we pray to you, Lord our God.

Presider Now send your Holy Spirit upon us and upon these gifts of bread and wine to show that they are the body and blood of your Son,
and every sin is pardoned, and every debt is redeemed,
and you have made us your holy people.

And bring us at last his kingdom of peace.
Already we gather to welcome him;
and lifting our voices with angels and archangels,
and with all the company of heaven,
we join in the Triumphal song:

All Holy, holy, holy...
